

The Baber House is the perfect setting for weddings, events and socials of all varieties. Located off Nashville Pike in Gallatin, Tennessee its location is convenient and setting is breath taking. Built in 1856 by its name sake, Washington Baber, the mansion and its grounds are surrounded by history. Standing through occupancy during the Civil War to its days as a very successful Thoroughbred Farm, the Baber House is sure to bring sophistication to every event. The original floors and historic details still grace the mansion and will be the ideal backdrop for all events held within its doors.
